I. The One God and Father

“I am the Alpha and the Omega,” says the Lord God - who is and who was and who is to come – the Almighty.<sup>1</sup>

Truly, God is.<sup>2</sup> He is the eternal Father who always has been and always will be above all.<sup>3</sup> His existence precedes all creation for he is the origin of the heavens and the earth and all life within it.<sup>4</sup> It is through his Word (logos) that all things were made.<sup>5</sup> Indeed, God is the foundation of law and order.<sup>6</sup> And the government of God is the basis from which all logic, natural laws and moral realities are realized within the world.<sup>7</sup> With unlimited power the everlasting king rules according to infinite knowledge and righteous purposes.<sup>8</sup> The Lord of Hosts – He is the sovereign master of heaven and earth.<sup>9</sup> Although the things of this world fade away, the Holy Father will always be the all-powerful and only wise God.<sup>10</sup> For the immortal God is incorruptible - ever holy and unchangeable in his being.<sup>11</sup> Eternally perfect and immutable, the authority of his word remains forever.<sup>12</sup>

Out of his infinite power and perfect wisdom, God created heaven and earth.<sup>13</sup> He is the father of humanity having made of one blood all nations of men.<sup>14</sup> From his hand is the life of every living thing and the breath of all mankind.<sup>15</sup> “In him we live, and move and have our being”.<sup>16</sup> We depend on the “Father of light”, for every good thing.<sup>17</sup> The father of creation is ruler and judge over all that he has made.<sup>18</sup> We are his, he is our

God, and we are the sheep of his pasture.<sup>19</sup> He who upholds the world looks down from heaven seeing every place and knowing all that transpires.<sup>20</sup> For there is no place that man can hide where God is not afar off.<sup>21</sup> His awareness transcends space and time into the depth of all things, even within the hearts of man.<sup>22</sup> Being immanent everywhere within the universe yet infinitely superior, God alone is able to rule with perfect justice.<sup>23</sup> Government belongs to the transcendent creator of all things.<sup>24</sup>

God is one.<sup>25</sup> He is the only true God and there is no other God besides him.<sup>26</sup> For although there may be so-called gods in heaven or on earth, there is but one God, the Father, from whom are all things and for whom we exist.<sup>27</sup> Pre-eminence excludes all but one Lord who is the first, greatest, highest, and supreme.<sup>28</sup> And the Lord is one within himself- undivided in person and character.<sup>29</sup> This is in accordance to the creed, “Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might”.<sup>30</sup> Accordingly, we are to love God with oneness of person, regarding the Father alone as the Most High God - the Almighty.<sup>31</sup>

God our Father is a living being active in personality and character.<sup>32</sup> As the individual from whom man was made in his image, the divine Father possesses intellect, sensibilities, and will.<sup>33</sup> God makes conscious choices according to his will.<sup>34</sup> Yet, unlike mankind, he is morally perfect in character.<sup>35</sup> Indeed, the Father of Light is holy and righteous, having a purely good nature.<sup>36</sup> He is perfectly righteous and perfectly loving.<sup>37</sup> Righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.<sup>38</sup> Although perfect, God is not just an ideal, principle, or moral law - rather he is a living Father who jealously desires loving relation with his children.<sup>39</sup> His identity as a personal being is profoundly demonstrated through the loving sensibilities he has shown in acts of mercy, loving kindness, and grace.<sup>40</sup> He who is faithful and true has expressed his good will toward creation.<sup>41</sup>

Our all-present Father knows all things about us, yet we are limited in knowledge of the “invisible” God.<sup>42</sup> God is spirit, not of a body of flesh and blood, but is imperishable.<sup>43</sup> No man has ever beheld the immortal Father directly.<sup>44</sup> He dwells in unapproachable light in the realm of heaven with his angels looking down from on high.<sup>45</sup> In fact, it is insufferable for man to see God in all his glory lest he die in the presence of the Holy One.<sup>46</sup> Likewise no man can grasp the fullness of God since finite mortals cannot search the one who is infinite nor attain the wisdom of him who is eternal.<sup>47</sup> Yet he is everywhere and his eyes are at every place and he could be known if we would just grope for him.<sup>48</sup> God can be found, if he is sought in righteousness with clean hands and a pure heart.<sup>49</sup> The Father delights in the welfare of his servants showing his face and giving salvation to all who fear him and follow after truth.<sup>50</sup> The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom.<sup>51</sup> However, God turns his face and hides himself from the unrighteous.<sup>52</sup> There is however no excuse for unbelief since God can be clearly seen through the things that have been made.<sup>53</sup>

The splendor, order, and vastness of the universe, including the created things within it, point toward the existence of God.<sup>54</sup> The moral laws, written within the hearts of man, also testify that God is true.<sup>55</sup> While evident in the presence of law, order, and morality, the “invisible” God further reveals himself in the experiences of man and is known by various testimonies he has left upon creation and through many witnesses and signs, the Father has demonstrated himself over the ages.<sup>56</sup> It is he who was revealed to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, by angelic visitation and vision, and to Moses, David, and to many other prophets. In the fulfillment of time, God principally manifested his wisdom and love through his Son Christ Jesus (Yeshua, the Messiah) having perfectly represented the Father in expressing his character, declaring his truth, and doing his will.<sup>57</sup> Scripture is the principal record of God, his law, his dealings with man, and the testimony to his son.<sup>58</sup>

The Father furthermore demonstrates himself through his Holy Spirit given through Jesus in fulfillment of the Gospel.<sup>59</sup> The Holy Spirit is the breath of God - his transmissible virtue and power that affects the world and life within it.<sup>60</sup> Deriving from God's infinite power and wisdom, the Spirit is divine substance transmitted from above. Being the supernatural extension of God by which the Father involves himself in our physical world, it can be said that the Spirit is the “finger” of God.<sup>61</sup> When believers are filled with the Spirit of God, they do the work of God in accordance with his will.<sup>62</sup> The Holy Spirit gives truth, wisdom, life, and power.<sup>63</sup> The Spirit transforms, purifies, and comforts.<sup>64</sup> Through his Spirit, God created the heavens and the earth.<sup>65</sup> And by the Spirit, God has spoken through the prophets.<sup>66</sup> Since God is spirit revealing himself through spirit, those who worship him must do so in spirit and truth; The Father seeks such to be his worshipers.<sup>67</sup> To see the kingdom of God, one must be born again by his

Spirit.<sup>68</sup> The gift of his Spirit is our adoption as his sons by which the Father takes charge of our lives.<sup>69</sup>

Before the ages began, foreknowing all things, God purposed through his eternal word (logos) a Gospel by which man's destiny would not necessarily be death, but that through the righteousness of faith man could hold an inheritance of eternal life.<sup>70</sup> This provision is for all who would choose to entrust themselves to his Christ in faithfulness to his will.<sup>71</sup> We are saved by God's wisdom manifested in the Gospel, whereas truth and love are brought together in such way that his perfect law is upheld so that through faith we have the forgiveness of sins.<sup>72</sup> God is no respecter of persons, and desires that all come to repentance in knowledge of the truth.<sup>73</sup> God is love. Yet in his love, he cannot violate his own law and principles.<sup>74</sup> Although the Holy Father wishes that none should perish and that all would be saved, he will eventually cast his judgment on all wickedness and rebelliousness.<sup>75</sup>

Ultimate judgment comes from him who is sovereign over the universe.<sup>76</sup> No standing wrong will go unpunished.<sup>77</sup> The heavens and the earth will be shaken once more.<sup>78</sup> Only that which is imperishable will remain.<sup>79</sup> The world will be judged in fire.<sup>80</sup> And, as God is a consuming fire, all the enemies of God and of his Christ will be destroyed.<sup>81</sup> The righteous will be separated from the wicked and the wicked will be as chaff destroyed in the fire.<sup>82</sup> Through Jesus, whom he has chosen, God will judge the world in righteousness.<sup>83</sup> In the end, after the destruction of every opposing rule and power through Christ, God will be all in all.<sup>84</sup> Regardless of all opposition, his eternal word will certainly come to pass.<sup>85</sup>

The fool has said in his heart that there is no God.<sup>86</sup> The uncircumcised in heart and ears resist the Holy Spirit.<sup>87</sup> In the pride of his anger the wicked says, “God will not call to account”.<sup>88</sup> Yet, while this world suffers injustice now, God has already initiated his plan and purpose to judge the world.<sup>89</sup> The good God is allowing evil and iniquity to continue for a time so that more may gain eternal life as children of his kingdom.<sup>90</sup> His wisdom will thus be shown in the delaying of judgment until the appointed time. Therefore, we preach, “The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent and believe the gospel!”<sup>91</sup> At the end of the age, God will fulfill all justice.<sup>92</sup>

II. Jesus the Messiah

At the proper time, God raised up his servant Jesus (Yeshua) to turn the people from their wickedness,<sup>93</sup> as Moses said, “The LORD your God will raise up for you from your own people a prophet like me. You must listen to whatever he tells you.<sup>94</sup> And it shall be that every soul who does not listen to that prophet shall be destroyed from the people.”<sup>95</sup> He is God’s chosen one, the son to whom God commands us to listen.<sup>96</sup> He came to open our eyes, so that we may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that we may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in him.<sup>97</sup> And he commanded his witnesses to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one appointed by God to be judge of the living and the dead.<sup>98</sup>

Jesus did nothing on his own authority, but did those things as the Father taught him,<sup>99</sup> saying, “I do not seek my own will but the will of him who sent me”<sup>100</sup> Being the man whom the Father sanctified and sent into the world, he committed no blaspheme to say that he was one with the Father.<sup>101</sup> For he did not speak on his own initiative, but spoke and did exactly as the Father commanded him.<sup>102</sup> And he has accomplished the work that the Father gave him to do.<sup>103</sup> Likewise we are to be one with God, perfected in unity, even as Christ was one with the Father and not of this world.<sup>104</sup>

Jesus is this man attested by God with mighty works and wonders and signs that God did through him.<sup>105</sup> For God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power, and he went around doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.<sup>106</sup> He was put to death, but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear.<sup>107</sup> Having been delivered up according to the definite plan and foreknowledge of God,<sup>108</sup> he is now exalted at God's right hand<sup>109</sup> wherefore the Father has made him both Lord and Christ.<sup>110</sup> Heaven has received him until the period of restoration of all things about which God spoke by the mouth of his holy prophets from ancient time.<sup>111</sup>

This is eternal life, that we may know the only true God, and Christ Jesus whom he has sent.<sup>112</sup> The Son of Man was lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.<sup>113</sup> For God so loved the world, that he gave his only son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life.<sup>114</sup> He is the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through him.<sup>115</sup> And there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we might be saved.<sup>116</sup> On the Son of Man, God has set his seal.<sup>117</sup> To him all the prophets testify that everyone who believes in him receives the forgiveness of sins.<sup>118</sup>

God our savior, desires all people to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God, and there is one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, who gave himself as a ransom for all.<sup>119</sup> In that a mediator involves more than one party, and whereas God is one,<sup>120</sup> Christ did not exalt himself to be made a high priest, but was appointed by him who said to him, "You are my son, today I have begotten you".<sup>121</sup> For every high priest chosen from among men is appointed to act on behalf of men in relation to God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins.<sup>122</sup> Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, has freed us from our sins by his own blood.<sup>123</sup>

As the Father lives, Jesus lives because of the Father, so that he who comes to him will live and be raised up on the last day.<sup>124</sup> The hour is coming when the dead will hear the voice of the son of God, and those who hear will live.<sup>125</sup> As God gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist, so he has granted the son also to have life in himself to bring with him those who have fallen asleep.<sup>126</sup> The Father has given his son authority over all flesh, to give eternal life.<sup>127</sup> And he has been given authority to execute judgment, because he is the Son of Man.<sup>128</sup>

The first man, Adam, became a living soul. The last Adam became a life-giving spirit.<sup>129</sup> Sin entered into the world through one man, and death through sin, so death spread to all - even over those who had not sinned in the likeness of the offense of Adam, who was a type of him who was to come.<sup>130</sup> As through one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, even so through the obedience of the one the many will be made righteous.<sup>131</sup> Since by a man came death, by a man also came the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die so also in Christ all will be made alive.<sup>132</sup> At the appointed time the dead in Christ will be raised imperishable; mortals will put on immortality.<sup>133</sup> Just as we have borne the image of the man of dust, we shall also bear the image of the man of heaven.<sup>134</sup>

The heavens existed long ago, and the earth was formed by the word of God.<sup>135</sup> From the foundation of the world, reason was with the Father and all things were made through it.<sup>136</sup> In the fullness of time, through God's Word, life was made manifest, and this life was the light of man.<sup>137</sup> According to the eternal purpose that God has realized in Christ Jesus our Lord, we proclaim the plan of the mystery hidden for ages in God who created all things, as a plan for the fullness of time to unite all things to himself.<sup>138</sup> By the divine Word, the heavens and earth that now exist are stored up for fire, being kept until the day of judgment and destruction of the ungodly.<sup>139</sup> The LORD is patient to fulfill his promise, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should reach repentance.<sup>140</sup>

The testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.<sup>141</sup> He who is called faithful and true, in righteousness will judge and make war.<sup>142</sup> The name by which he is called is the Word of God<sup>143</sup> and the armies of heaven will follow him.<sup>144</sup> From his mouth will come a sharp sword with which to strike down the nations, and he will rule them.<sup>145</sup> He will tread the winepress of the fury of the wrath of God the Almighty.<sup>146</sup> He must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet; including death itself.<sup>147</sup> Then comes the end, when he delivers the kingdom to God the Father after destroying every rule and every authority and power.<sup>148</sup> Finally, when all things are subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to him who put all things in subjection under him, that God may be all in all.<sup>149</sup> The day of the LORD will come and then the heavens will pass away with a roar, and the heavenly bodies will be burned up and dissolved.<sup>150</sup> But according to his promise we are waiting for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells.<sup>151</sup>

Jesus is the firstborn over all creation.<sup>152</sup> It is the Father's good pleasure to reconcile all things to himself through him.<sup>153</sup> Now through Christ Jesus we exist.<sup>154</sup> For God has put all things in subjection under his feet.<sup>155</sup> He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he himself will come to have first place in everything.<sup>156</sup> He died and behold he is alive forevermore, and has the keys of Death and Hades.<sup>157</sup> The lion of

III. Life, Death and the Hope of Salvation

In the day the God made the earth and the heavens, the Lord God formed the man of dust from the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living soul.<sup>170</sup> And from the flesh of Adam, God formed a woman, which the man named Eve because she was the mother of all living.<sup>171</sup> Although Adam lived in paradise in close fellowship with God, the first man was deceived with his wife into sin for which God warned, “you shall surely die”.<sup>172</sup> So the woman and the man condemned themselves to death, according to the curse which God spoke to Adam, “By the sweat of your face you shall eat, till you return to the ground, for out of it you were taken; for you are dust, and to dust you shall return.”<sup>173</sup> So the Lord God sent the man and his wife out from paradise and prohibited mortals from partaking of the tree of life.<sup>174</sup>

Sin therefore came into the world through one man, and death through sin, and so death spread to all men.<sup>175</sup> According to God’s righteous law, the soul who sins shall die.<sup>176</sup> Having been alienated from God through sin, mankind is already condemned.<sup>177</sup> And by works no man is justified in the sight of God.<sup>178</sup> Humanity has already been charged that all are under sin, as it is written: “None is righteous, no not one; no one understands; no one seeks for God. All have turned aside; together they have become worthless; no one does good, not even one.”<sup>179</sup> Lacking the repentance that leads to life, man is dead in trespasses and sin, following the course of this world, following the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work in the sons of disobedience. The children of man have fallen away, they have all become corrupt as Jesus said, “no one is good except God alone.”<sup>180</sup> So death has reigned from Adam, even over those whose sinning was not like the transgression of Adam.<sup>181</sup>

Of first importance is that Jesus has died for our sins, he was buried, and he was raised on the third day.<sup>182</sup> Our hope and faith in the Gospel rests on the promise that we shall likewise attain the resurrection from the dead at the end of the age.<sup>183</sup> Although the first man Adam became a living being, the last Adam became a life-giving spirit.<sup>184</sup> Just as we have borne the image of the man of dust, we shall also bear the image of the man of heaven.<sup>185</sup> At the last trumpet the dead will be raised imperishable and be changed.<sup>186</sup> For the perishable body must put on the imperishable, and the mortal body must put on immortality so that it comes to pass, as it is written, “Death is swallowed up in victory”.<sup>187</sup> We believe that Jesus died and rose again - likewise God will bring with Christ those who have fallen asleep.<sup>188</sup> For the Lord himself will return and descend from heaven with a cry of command and the dead in Christ will rise.<sup>189</sup>

Despite death’s curse through one man’s trespass, the gift of righteousness following many trespasses now reigns in life through the one man Jesus Christ.<sup>190</sup> Therefore, as one trespass led to condemnation for all men, so one act of righteousness leads to justification and life for all men.<sup>191</sup> As by the one man’s disobedience the many were made sinners, so by the one man’s obedience the many will be made righteous.<sup>192</sup> For as by a man came death, by a man has come also the resurrection of the death.<sup>193</sup> As in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive.<sup>194</sup> For God so loved the world, that he gave his only son, that whoever believes in him should not perish.<sup>195</sup> Thanks be to God in showing his love for us that, while we were under the law of sin and death, Christ died for the ungodly to justify us by his blood in saving us from the wrath of God.<sup>196</sup>

The place of the dead is known as Sheol in Hebrew and Hades in Greek.<sup>197</sup> There the wicked are punished and the righteous are comforted until the day of judgement.<sup>198</sup> Jesus saw it as having locations where the wicked are in agony separated by a wide gulf where the righteous reside beside Abraham.<sup>199</sup> Jesus used the word Gehenna as an illustration of hell to describe the part of Hades where the wicked are confined. Gehenna, translated “Valley of Hinnom” is known to be a cursed place, and in the Hebrew Bible is where some of the kings of Judah sacrificed their children by fire.<sup>200</sup> Gehenna continued to a place of burning sewage, burning flesh, and garbage where maggots and worms crawled through the waste and the smoke smelled strong and was sickening.<sup>201</sup> The depiction of Gehenna is hell; the place of eternal torment where the fires never cease from burning and the worms never stop crawling.<sup>202</sup> This is the place of fallen angles (demons), where they are being kept until the day of judgement.<sup>203</sup>

Jesus made it clear that we should fear hell more than death - and we should fear the one that has authority to cast into hell more than those who are able to kill the body.<sup>204</sup> We should avoid being condemned to hell at all costs.<sup>205</sup> It is better to lose one of the members our body that make us sin than our whole body be thrown into hell.<sup>206</sup> It is better to enter life crippled or lose a hand than to be cast into hell.<sup>207</sup> It is better to enter life lame than with two feet be thrown into hell.<sup>208</sup> It is better to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than with two eyes be thrown into hell.<sup>209</sup>

When Jesus was put to death, God raised him the dead and his soul of was not abandoned to Hades.<sup>210</sup> He has been exalted at the right hand of God as leader and savior<sup>211</sup> He died and now is alive forever more and now has the keys to Death and

Sin is death, but now grace reigns through righteousness leading to eternal life.<sup>229</sup> The wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life.<sup>230</sup> This is the will of the Father, that everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and Christ will raise him up.<sup>231</sup> Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him.<sup>232</sup> The Scripture imprisoned everything under sin, so that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.<sup>233</sup> To those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; but for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury.<sup>234</sup>

IV. What Salvation Requires

The most elementary doctrine of Christ is the foundation of repentance from dead works and of faith toward God.<sup>241</sup> John, son of Zechariah and forerunner of Christ, proclaimed a baptism of repentance.<sup>242</sup> Jesus came proclaiming the gospel of God saying, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand, repent and believe in the Gospel"<sup>243</sup>. He sent his disciples to proclaim the kingdom of God and to preach that all people should repent.<sup>244</sup> And when he had been exalted to God's right hand, the Apostles proclaimed the same Gospel saying, "Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit."<sup>245</sup> To the Gentiles as well as the Jews, God has granted the repentance that leads to life.<sup>246</sup> For in the name of Jesus, repentance and forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem.<sup>247</sup> God's kindness is meant to lead us to repentance.<sup>248</sup> The Lord is patient toward us, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should reach repentance.<sup>249</sup> Yet the day of the Lord will come like a thief, and the earth and the works that are done on it will be exposed.<sup>250</sup> The heavens and earth that now exist are stored up for fire, being kept until the day of judgment and destruction of the ungodly.<sup>251</sup>

God commands all people everywhere to repent because he has fixed a day in which he will judge the world in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed, and of this he has given assurance to all by raising him from the dead.<sup>252</sup> Unless we repent, regardless of severity of our sins, we will likewise perish with the wicked.<sup>253</sup> To escape the wrath to come we must bear fruits in keeping with repentance.<sup>254</sup> Even now the axe is laid to the root of the trees. Every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.<sup>255</sup> Jesus, is the one who baptizes in the Holy Spirit and with fire, holds the winnowing fork to clear his threshing floor and to gather the wheat into his barn, but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire.<sup>256</sup> Those of a hard and unrepentant heart are storing up wrath for themselves on the day of wrath when God's righteous judgment will be revealed.<sup>257</sup> He will render to each one according to his works; to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; but to those who are contentious and do not obey the truth, but unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury.<sup>258</sup>

That which you sow does not come to life unless it dies.<sup>259</sup> In repentance we consider ourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.<sup>260</sup> For all of us who die with Christ and are baptized into the name of Jesus are baptized into his death.<sup>261</sup> We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life.<sup>262</sup> Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him.<sup>263</sup> Therefore, we are not to let sin reign in our mortal bodies.<sup>264</sup> And we are not to present ourselves to sin as instruments for unrighteousness, but to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and our members to righteousness.<sup>265</sup>

God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.<sup>266</sup> If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth.<sup>267</sup> If we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus cleanses us from all sin.<sup>268</sup> We are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness.<sup>269</sup> But thanks be to God, for those who were once slaves of sin now have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which they were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness.<sup>270</sup> As servants of God, the fruit we get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life.<sup>271</sup>

God gives the Holy Spirit to those who obey him.<sup>272</sup> By believing, we are sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, which is the guarantee of our inheritance until we acquire possession of it.<sup>273</sup> Christ has fulfilled the promise, ‘John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.’<sup>274</sup> It is he who baptizes with the Holy Spirit and with fire.<sup>275</sup> Truly, the Spirit we receive is our declaration of adoption as children of God, to whom we cry “Abba! Father!”<sup>276</sup> For if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness.<sup>277</sup> We are washed, we are sanctified, we are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.<sup>278</sup> Unless one is born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. It is the Spirit that gives life. Unless one is born of the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God.<sup>279</sup> The true worshipers shall worship the Father in Spirit and in Truth.<sup>280</sup>

In sanctification of the Spirit, God has purposed us for obedience to Jesus Christ and for the sprinkling of his blood. We are to cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God, working out our own salvation with fear and trembling.<sup>281</sup> Like newborn infants we are to grow up to salvation pursuing righteousness, godliness, faith, love, steadfastness, gentleness in fighting the good fight of the faith and taking hold of the eternal life to which we were called.<sup>282</sup> We should not be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.<sup>283</sup> Heed the call for the endurance of the saints, those who keep the commandments of God and their faith in Jesus.<sup>284</sup> For we share in Christ, if

Jesus learned obedience through what he suffered. And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him.<sup>287</sup> Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him.<sup>288</sup> In flaming fire, vengeance shall be inflicted on those who do not know God and on those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus.<sup>289</sup> God has called his people to bring about the obedience of faith for the sake of his name among all the nations.<sup>290</sup> A person is justified by works and not by faith alone.<sup>291</sup> Faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead.<sup>292</sup> As the body apart from the spirit is dead, so also faith apart from works is dead.<sup>293</sup> If we have abandoned the love we had at first, Jesus will come and remove our place, unless we repent.<sup>294</sup> Many are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, therefore he will spit them out of his mouth. you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. Therefore, do not associate with them; for at one time you were darkness, but now you are light in the Lord - Walk as children of light.<sup>299</sup> Take no part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but instead expose them.<sup>300</sup> By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother.<sup>301</sup> If we live by the Spirit, let us also walk by the Spirit.<sup>302</sup> The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law.<sup>303</sup>

There is no other commandment greater than these: 'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.' The second is this: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'<sup>304</sup> Indeed, we are to love our enemies and do good to those who hate us and our reward will be great, and we will be sons of the Most High.<sup>305</sup> Owe no one anything, except to love each other, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law for the whole law is fulfilled in one word: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."<sup>306</sup> Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love.<sup>307</sup> If we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us.<sup>308</sup> This is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and that we love one another.<sup>309</sup> The aim of our charge is love that issues from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith.<sup>310</sup> We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love. But that is not truly the way of Christ!— assuming that you have heard about him and were taught in him, to put off your old self, which belongs to your former manner of life and is corrupt through deceitful desires, and to be renewed in the spirit of your mind, and to put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness.<sup>312</sup> According to the revelation of the mystery that was kept secret for long ages but has now been disclosed and has been made known to all nations; the command of our eternal God to bring about the obedience of faith.<sup>313</sup> Jesus came to open our eyes, so that we may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that we may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in him.<sup>314</sup> For by grace we are saved through faith. And this is not our own doing; it is the gift of God.<sup>315</sup> Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God.<sup>316</sup> In Christ Jesus we are sons of God, through faith.<sup>317</sup> In faith, we eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness.<sup>318</sup> Nothing counts for anything in Christ Jesus, but only faith working through love.<sup>319</sup>

V. In Love, In Truth and In the Spirit

In love

The love of God that has been delivered to humanity through his Christ is the basis for all our actions. On account of love, God raised up Jesus to be salvation to the world.<sup>332</sup> And having the Father's heart, Jesus sacrificed his own life for love.<sup>333</sup> Through this love we now have the forgiveness of sins,<sup>334</sup> with new life in the Spirit,<sup>335</sup> as sons of God.<sup>336</sup> And it is this love that gives us the great hope to partake in resurrection of life,<sup>337</sup> with the promise that we may enter into the kingdom of our God.<sup>338</sup> Indeed our ministry is the exceeding grace and mercy of God's love given to us through Christ Jesus;<sup>339</sup> namely, the Gospel.<sup>340</sup>

God is love.<sup>341</sup> Thus our faithfulness to him is dependent on our commitment to love.<sup>342</sup> The whole Law of God is fulfilled in this principal virtue.<sup>343</sup> Truly, when questioned about the greatest commandment, Jesus said, "The most important is, 'Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.' The second is this: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these."<sup>344</sup> Seeing that love is the purpose of all of God's people, it is the central purpose of this church.<sup>345</sup> Love redeems, binds together and builds up.<sup>346</sup> Love bears all things, hopes all things and believes all things.<sup>347</sup> The perfect love of God destroys all fear bringing the peace that surpasses understanding.<sup>348</sup> Truly, all things must be done for love and in love.<sup>349</sup> May the love of God be perfected in us as to truly be followers of Christ!<sup>350</sup>

In Truth

Love is perfected in truth, as God's love is inseparable from his truth and his justice. For it is through faith in the truth by which we are justified and receive the grace and salvation of the Most High.<sup>351</sup> The ministry of God's love must thus be accomplished in accordance with the understanding of his Word. God's Word is fundamental to the ministry as we receive the promise on his terms under his conditions. Divine promise and revelation were given through Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, through Moses and the Law, and through the Prophets. Other Scripture records God's dealings with his people demonstrating his word with many signs and testimonies. In accord with the word spoken through the Law and the Prophets, we testify to God's plan and purpose for the world.<sup>352</sup> Truly, God's redemption for humanity centers upon his Christ, as his grace and truth are realized in Jesus. Thus, our apostolic ministry of love shall be in accord with the word of truth.<sup>353</sup> In confidence we believe that the Gospel is the accomplished word of God, and not the invention of any man.<sup>354</sup>

The church body is to be sanctified in truth.<sup>355</sup> In all our efforts we are to minister in the truth of the Bible. Our worship of God, our faith in the Lord Jesus, the function of the church body - all things must be guided by the truth of God's Word.<sup>356</sup> Scripture is of foremost authority in all matters of faith being that light which guides us. We are to be led not by tradition but rather by the Word of God in the spirit of truth.<sup>357</sup>

We shall strive to maintain sound teaching rather than humanistic teachings that suit the passions of individuals.<sup>358</sup> We must resist being carried about by every wind of doctrine by human cunning or crafty teaching and deceitful schemes.<sup>359</sup> We must not embrace the teaching of any doctrine that undermines the aim of love that originates from a pure heart, a good conscience and a sincere faith<sup>360</sup> We should not swerve from these things by wandering away into vain discussions about the law.<sup>361</sup> The law is laid down not for the just but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for the immoral - whatever is contrary to sound doctrine.<sup>362</sup> We must avoid empty and profane teachings that are contradictory and are falsely called knowledge.<sup>363</sup> Those professing doctrines of men have swerved from the faith.<sup>364</sup> Consider the witnesses of the Bible who spoke the Word of God – consider the outcome of their way of life and imitate their faith.<sup>365</sup>

In the Spirit

While the truth of the Word of God is our solid food, the Spirit of God is our drink.<sup>366</sup> As the result of his love made manifest in Jesus Christ, we now receive the Holy Spirit.<sup>367</sup> Jesus received from the Father the promise to baptize in the Holy Spirit as he is now exalted to the right hand of God.<sup>368</sup> The promise of the Spirit shall be realized in our ministry of the Gospel.<sup>369</sup> God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth.<sup>370</sup> In Christ, we are to be filled with God receiving his Holy Breath.<sup>371</sup> By the Spirit deposited in us, we become temples of the living God.<sup>372</sup> Indeed, his indwelling spirit establishes us as sons of God.<sup>373</sup> The new life of the Spirit purifies us and compels us in all righteousness.<sup>374</sup> Through Christ, God pours into us the living water of the Spirit, filling our hearts with love, giving us extraordinary peace with joy unspeakable.<sup>375</sup> The Spirit is our comforter providing intimacy with God bearing witness within us to the truth of our salvation.<sup>376</sup> All who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God for we come to know God and accomplish his will through the Spirit.<sup>377</sup>

ARTICLES OF FAITH

Ministering the Gospel in fullness involves operating in the Spirit under the anointing. We are not to serve under an old written code, but in the new life of the Spirit.<sup>378</sup> Nor shall we teach eloquent words of wisdom without the Spirit, lest the cross of Christ be diminished.<sup>379</sup> Rather, if necessary, we shall tarry and wait to be given power from on High.<sup>380</sup> The Holy Spirit shall be our driving force - transforming, interceding, and empowering us according to the will of God.<sup>381</sup> The ministry of miraculous healing deliverance from demonic strongholds is carried out in the power of the Spirit.<sup>382</sup> We should pursue spiritual gifts, but especially that we may prophesy.<sup>383</sup> Prophecy comes not from a man's will, but when one speaks from God as the Holy Spirit provides divine unction and carries him along.<sup>384</sup> Signs and wonders are made manifest by the power of the Spirit.<sup>385</sup> Our boldness and inspiration is to be vitalized by this breath of God.<sup>386</sup> We are to manifest the divine giving witness to God's truth by his power.<sup>387</sup> We are not to be of dry religion, but rather a living faith - partaking of the Spirit of God that comes through Christ.<sup>388</sup>

Grace to you and peace from him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven spirits who are before his throne, and from Jesus Christ the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of kings on earth. To him who loves us and freed us from our sins by his blood. And made us a kingdom, priests to his God and Father, to him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.
